Local Ducks

October 4, 2011

Dear Paul,

Check out the picture above. Phil Skoglund (pictured on the right) and his buddy Kyle took some time Saturday morning gathering this limit of local ducks. They harvested these teal a mile and a half north of the home farm.

Phil and Kyle will be waiting a while for the northern ducks to come down.

It was 85 degrees today.

We started the spring cool and wet, and the fall has been warm and dry - we just had one of the driest Septembers on record.

The dry fall will allow the crop harvest to get underway. The combines and grain trucks will be turning wheels by the end of the week.

The Pheasant Opener is just around the corner !!!

Have a Great Week!

Sincerely,
Paul Skoglund
