from the Skoglund Farm

Dear Paul,

In the fall of 1957 Alden and Delores decided it would be fun to keep some pheasant hunters on their working family farm. They started a tradition that has continued for the last 54 fall seasons.

I found an old poster from years back. We charge more today than the $15 a day that Alden and Delores did. But the rooster pheasants are still a challenge to harvest, and the South Dakota sunsets are still beautiful.

You know, there is something timeless about hunting on the South Dakota prairie.

We still have some dates open this fall. Drop us a line or give me a call at 507-221-1370.
